Speaking Topics

Fear is a Four Letter Word

True peace is not the absence of conflict or tribulation; it is the presence of God in the midst of the storm. Fear, worry, anxiety contribute to rob us of the peace that God desires for us to possess. Using compelling illustrations, Susan will provide tips to change thought patterns to achieve lasting peace.

End Injustice For All

Edmund Burke said, "Nobody makes a greater mistake than he who did nothing because he could only do a little." If we each do a little, a lot will be accomplished. This message provides both education on the topic and resources on ways to make a difference.

i Know You Are, But What Am i?

People everywhere are struggling with questions of identity and purpose, asking the question "Who Am I?" Our true identity is based upon who God says we are. As we explore the names that God applies to us, names like friend, child, bride, sheep, soldier, runner, instrument, and more, we will be encouraged and strengthened to live, love and serve with fullness and purpose.

Bio

Susan is a wife and mom who manages her chiropractor husband's office by day and writes by night. She is a Jewish Jersey girl who loves Jesus and by His grace is loved by Him.

Her blog, Eternity Café, shares encouraging stories of everyday life that reflect the eternal truths of God which incite passion and purpose out of the mundane and ordinary. She writes and speaks to women's groups on this and a wide variety of topics, all designed to encourage, equip, and edify with enthusiasm for an eternal perspective.

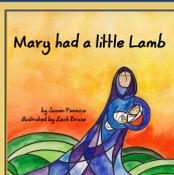

She is also an abolitionist - the co-founder and Executive Director of Justice Network which raises awareness of human trafficking and support for organizations locally and globally that are already on the front lines fighting this heinous evil. Susan serves as an officer of the Board of Trustees of the NJ Coalition Against Human Trafficking.
